EOF Welcomes New EOF Administrator

Ms. Joan Pardo

EOF welcomes Joan Pardo to our staff as the new EOF Administrator. Joan graduated from Centenary University with a Bachelor of Arts in English. As an undergraduate, Joan was heavily involved on campus as a Resident Assistant, EOF peer tutor and Student Government, just to name a few. Prior to joining our team, Joan worked with youth 9–21 years of age at a nonprofit organization in the city of Camden. She has been working with youth for almost 10 years. Joan enjoys reading, drinking tea, football and recently started a collection of coffee mugs. She enjoys traveling and trying new foods. Joan hopes to continue her education and pursue a graduate degree in the near future. She is very passionate about higher education, working with students and hopes to help them reach their academic goals. Welcome, Joan!

Rowan University In-Service Day & All College Day at RCGC

EOF Academic Achievement Award

Each year the EOF Board of Directors and the New Jersey Office of the Secretary of Higher Education invite the campus programs to help highlight the graduating EOF students who have demonstrated exceptional achievement throughout their college careers. The EOF program at Rowan College of Gloucester College is proud to announce that for the academic school year 2016-2017, 23 EOF students will be acknowledged for their hard work, dedication and persistence. We are very proud!
